ABOUT US

Last Frame Film Club is an independent queer film club focusing on underrepresented filmmakers and important stories. We hold screenings and workshops throughout the year in both the UK and Spain, including Queer Horror Nights - a collaboration with Token Homo.

QUEER FEST

This is our 4th edition of our annual queer film festival. This year we are showcasing queer feature films, documentaries, short films and workshops. The festival will take place over 4 days in London from Thursday 13th to Sunday 16th July. Come say hi!

This year's festival has been made possible with support from Consortium and The National Lottery Community Fund, and Leytonstone Loves Film by Barbican.

In partnership with

LGBT+ Futures: Equity Fund is a two-year £786,000 partnership between Consortium and The National Lottery Community Fund, designed to help community-led and grassroots organisations supporting some of the most under-represented and marginalised LGBT+ communities

JOYLAND (2022)

DIR. SAIM SADIQ

GOOD SHEPHERD
STUDIOS*18:30

Following a long spell of unemployment, Haider lands a job at a Bollywood-style burlesque, telling his family he is a theatre manager. In actuality, he is a backup dancer and becomes infatuated with a strong-willed trans woman, Biba. Joyland is a tender and intimate love story set against a conservative and patriarchal backdrop. Told with integrity and passion. A stunning debut from director Saim Sadiq.

OTHERNESS (2023)DIR. ALBA CROS PELLISÉ, NORA
HADDAD CASADEVALLGENESIS CINEMA*21:00*UK PREMIERE

Otherness is a documentary that collects the diverse voices of the lesbian community in Catalonia. A genealogy that comprehends four generations, and a very intimate journey through intertwining lives, allows us to understand what it is like to exist within a world made of heterosexual structures whilst belonging to the LGBTIQ+ collective. Otherness is an emotional and contemporary film bringing to the screen other possible lives we might never have thought of. A poignant and timely exploration of lesbian identity and belonging.

14:00 POP-UP BOOKMAKING
WORKSHOP WITH QUEER ART
CLUB

This workshop is inspired by our Queer Horror Nights screening of accidental queer icon THE BABADOOK! The incredibly talented Finn Yvo will guide you through the art of making a DIY pop-up book celebrating your own coming out story (suburban or otherwise) taking inspiration from amazing 3D paper artists and exploring techniques of paper cutting and folding, charcoal, chinks and collage. This workshop is for people of all abilities and a space where you can freely explore your creativity and have some fun with some fellow creative queers. All materials provided.

SATURDAY 15

DESERT HEARTS
(1985) DIR. DONNA DEITCH

GENESIS
CINEMA
18:25

Last Frame is very excited to present 80's cult-classic, lesbian melodrama DESERT HEARTS. Based on Jane Rule's 1964 novel, Desert of the Heart, this adaptation by lesbian filmmaker, Donna Deitch, continues to remain a firm favourite with queer women. Why? Well, it could be denim shirts, the short-shorts, the unshakeable chemistry between the two leads, or the exquisitely bittersweet sounds of Patsy Cline. Whatever the reason, make sure you join us for this very special screening of Desert Hearts, presented by the one and only Loose Willis. Come wearing your finest cowboy shirt for a chance to win a bottle of fizz on us!

KENNETH ANGER'S MAGICK LANTERN

WITH BAR TRASH IN PARAGON BAR, GENESIS CINEMA

GENESIS
CINEMA
21:00

An evening of Kenneth Anger's short films from the legendary Magick Lantern Cycle, including FIREWORKS (1947), RABBIT'S MOON (1950-71), and SCORPIO RISING (1964).

Kenneth Anger's enormously influential short films serve up a mind-bending cocktail of homoeroticism, symbolism and occultism, mixed with a pioneering use of pop and classical music.

His controversial life and career – Anger also wrote trash-talking dumpster fire, Hollywood Babylon – are spiked with falsehoods, radicalism, censorship (leading to a landmark civil rights judgement), violence, and scandal.

TAKE A DEEP DIVE INTO DRAG IN THIS BEGINNERS WORKSHOP WITH THE LOUCHE LEGEND HIMSELF: LOOSE WILLIS, A SEASONED DRAG KING.

14:00 FIND YOUR DRAG CHARACTER
WORKSHOP WITH LOOSE WILLIS

You'll get a chance to build your own drag persona from the ground up, exploring the way they move, talk, and what makes them tick. Whether you're into kings, things, creatures or queens, this is a workshop for anyone who wants to dip their toe into gender performance, and learn how to develop their very own drag character from scratch.

Open to all: performers and non-performers, any level of experience welcome. The workshop will include gentle physical movement, verbal and written activities and space for questions and discussion.
